

Intensive discussions with the client's representatives precede the decision regarding the choice of a venue suitable for the event. We believe that in order to reach full satisfaction of the client and the future event participants it is necessary to get to know well the character of the planned event and the nature of its participants.

Conference Partners has many years of experience in organizing events in prominent traditional conference venues in Prague, as well as in many other interesting locations all around the Czech Republic. Moreover, we are constantly monitoring the latest developments in this area.

We always offer a wide range of a suitable venue types and an accompanying social programme in a way to enable the participants to get to know our capital city. For domestic events we are capable to offer alternative interesting destinations within the entire Czech Republic – we are ready to prepare an afternoon programme for the participants with an emphasis on leisure and sports activities such as nature walks, cycling trips or healing spa procedures.
